

SEGUIN-MANUEL

RULLY Les Cailloux

TERROIR

Clay and limestone, lots of stones, located in Côte Chalonnaise, south of the Rully village. The vines in this plot are 35 years old.

WINEMAKING & MATURATION

Hand-picked, the grapes after pressing have fermented and been matured in oak cask for one year.

WINE DESCRIPTION

Pale gold colour. Seductive and stylish aromas of summer fruit as peach and floral nuances on the nose. Straightforward on the palate, the fruit is already open. The natural elegance is enhanced by a lovely mineral structure.

WINE & FOOD

To pair with mussels in white wine, persi or Comté cheese 18 months).

AGEING POTENTIAL

At its best after 2-5 years.

www.seguin-manuel.com

SEGUIN-MANUEL